How to Register:

Online:

We encourage you to register instantly through our secure internet store.

Go to: <http://www.bryerpatch.com/cgi-bin/Store/store.cgi> and select the link for “Bryerpatch Studio Workshops”.

Snail Mail:

Print and mail in your registration by snail mail. A printable registration form is on page 4 of this document.

Facilities:

Bryerpatch Studio is a smoke-free and perfume- free facility. Please be considerate of classmates who may be sensitive and leave perfumes or other scented toiletries at home. We are fully wheel-chair accessible. You can park within a few feet of our doors to unload and roll you machines and supplies into the classroom. Our 900 square foot classroom has full spectrum lighting and is wired to handle irons and sewing machines. Each student will have a 2 x 4 foot table and easy access to large cutting and ironing boards in the classroom. Extra space for cutting and drawing is also available in our dye studio/classroom annex. Irons and cutting boards will be provided, so you don't need to bring your own.

Sewing machine rentals:

A limited number of Bernina sewing machines will be available on a first come first served basis for participants who cannot fly with their own machines. Rental fee is $10.00 per day. If more machines are needed, they can be rented from other shops in Paducah.

Food:

Breakfast: Etc Coffee House (2½ blocks away) is open every day for muffins, cereal and yogurt, bagels etc.

Lunch: A catered lunch will be provided each day in Caryl's spacious kitchen.

Dinner: We have many good (non-franchise) restaurants within walking distance in downtown Paducah. We also have every franchise restaurant on the planet 5 miles away near Hancocks of Paducah and I-24 exit #4.

Other fun things to do while you're here:

We make every effort to schedule our workshops to coincide with other events or workshops in Paducah that you may want to enjoy while you are here.

~ The Machine Quilting workshop February 5-7 is just before a workshop at the National Quilt Museum with Judith Baker Montano. You may also want to consider coming in early the day before to see the Broadway Touring Company's "Sweeny Todd" at the Carson Center on Tuesday, Feb. 4. Tickets are still available.

~ The Feb. 13-16 Freeform Piecing class is just after the Judith Baker Montano workshop at the National Quilt Museum.

~ The Mar. 29-31 design workshop and the April 2-4 computer design workshops are scheduled back to back. Consider staying for both.

~ The May 21-24 workshop is scheduled during the Paducah LowerTown Arts and Music festival. Come and enjoy both.

~ The June workshops are held on either side of our LowerTown Arts District's traditional "Second Saturday" when all of the galleries are open from noon until 8 pm. Come for either workshop (or both) and experience the ambiance of our local culture while you are here.

Even more great things to do:

~ Fabric shopping: We have three quilt shops within walking distance of the studio, and Hancock's of Paducah is 10 minutes away by car (4.5 miles)

~ Other shopping: Downtown Paducah is full of charming antique shops, boutiques and craft galleries.

- ~ Take in the art scene in the Historic LowerTown Arts District. <http://paducaharts.com/>
- ~ Watch an independent film at Maiden Alley Cinema. <http://www.maidenalleycinema.com/>
- ~ Enjoy a concert or Broadway show at the Carson Four Rivers Performing Arts Center.
<http://www.thecarsoncenter.org/>
- ~ Visit the National Quilt Museum (4 blocks from Bryerpatch Studio). <http://www.quiltmuseum.org/>
- ~ Enjoy the beauty of nature at Land Between the Lakes. <http://www.lbl.org/>
- ~ Find even more that Western Kentucky has to offer at the Paducah Visitors Bureau.
