Design Concept & Process:

Duet #6 is an updated version of my 2008 quilt Duet #3. Starting with a photo of the unquilted tops of Duet #3, which was made from my own dye-painted fabric, I digitally painted some of the background areas and redrew the heads of the eagles. The original image was enlarged and mirror imaged. It is quilted in many different colors of polyester and acrylic thread. The binding was designed especially for this quilt. The backing fabric is from one of my collections for Benartex.
